A brief profile of the Coach:

Sushruta Reddy was awarded the title of FIDE Instructor in April 2018 by FIDE – the World’s Chess Organisation. Usually, such a title reflects the training acumen of the Coach.

He was also the Champion at the Millionaire Chess Tournament (Under 2000) at Las Vegas during October 2014. At that time, he was the winner of the 2nd highest prize money won by any Indian after Viswanathan Anand.

Being a well-known writer of Chess articles, Sushruta has profiled several young talents in the past. He is known in the Karnataka Chess fraternity as an Organiser, Chess Player and a Chess Coach. With a coaching experience of nearly 15 years, he is among the leading Chess Coaches in Bangalore.

Sushruta Reddy promotes Chess across the grassroots levels in Bangalore. He imparts Chess training at four leading Institutions in Bangalore – 1) The International School Bangalore, 2) Sri Aurobindo Memorial School, 3) Silicon City Academy of Secondary Education and 4) National Public School (HSR)
